

Terms & Conditions

Effective Date: Aug 1 2026

These Terms & Conditions govern the use of Valour Emergency Preparedness services, website, and training programs.

By registering for a course or using our services, you agree to these terms.

Training Services

Valour provides emergency preparedness, first aid, wilderness medicine, and firefighter training programs designed to provide education and practical skills.

Successful completion of a course requires students to meet attendance, participation, and assessment requirements.

Registration

Course registration is confirmed once payment requirements have been completed.

Valour reserves the right to limit class sizes to ensure quality instruction and student safety.

Student Responsibilities

Students are expected to:

- Participate safely and respectfully
- Follow instructor directions
- Complete required practical activities
- Disclose any limitations that may affect safe participation

Certification

Certification is dependent on meeting the requirements established by Valour and applicable training organizations.

Completion of training does not guarantee certification if course requirements are not met.

Course Changes

Valour reserves the right to:

- Modify course dates
- Change instructors
- Adjust course content when required
- Cancel courses due to unforeseen circumstances

Students will be notified of significant changes.

Limitation of Liability

Training provided by Valour is intended to develop emergency response skills. Participation does not replace professional medical, fire, or emergency services.

Valour is not responsible for injuries, losses, or damages resulting from misuse of training, failure to follow safety instructions, or actions taken outside the training environment.

Website Use

Website content is provided for general information purposes and may be updated without notice.

Unauthorized use, reproduction, or distribution of website materials is prohibited.
